

Jasper Community Garden.

Contract :

Each plot holder must sign a contract agreeing to the rules laid down by the Committee.

Key.

Each plot holder will be issued and must sign for, a key to the entry gate. Each plot holder will be responsible for maintaining security at the site and should lock the gate upon entering and leaving.

Rules of the garden.

Each plot holder will be assigned a site and will restrict their activities to that site. It is permissible for plot holders to join together for the operation of their sites.

An electric fence will be installed and should be left open so long as anyone is within the fenced area. The last plot holder to leave the area should close the fence, in order to energize it.

Each plot holder will be responsible for maintenance of their own plot and the walk way adjacent to it and will not block access to other plots.

Each plot holder will be responsible for using all chemicals and fertilizers carefully so as not to impact any adjacent plot or walkway.

Each plot holder will be responsible for controlling kudzu on their plot and adjacent walkway. The committee will control, with herbicides, the kudzu around the plot area.

Be responsible, keep noise to a minimum and do not leave equipment so as it might cause an obstruction to other plot holders and their enjoyment of their plot.

Produce grown on your plot is intended for family use only. Commercial growing is not allowed.

No illegal crop shall be grown.

A water source will be provided. Each plot holder will be responsible for getting water from the source (by hose pipe or other means) to their plot and responsible for ensuring that water is not left running after watering is completed.

Use water carefully. Dues not spent on utilities and maintenance will be used to improve the site.

Each plot holder will be responsible for removing completely from the area all trash generated by that plot holder. Vegetable waste shall be placed in a designated area of the site if not used on the plot.

Do not drive down to your plot if the ground is excessively wet.

Plots not worked or dues not paid for one season will forfeit the plot. Excepting that notification is given of an illness or other valid reason.

Please try to resolve any disagreements amicably or refer them to a committee member.

You are responsible for your own safety at the site.

The committee or the City of Jasper cannot be held responsible for loss of your equipment left on site or loss of crop due to wild life.
